ENGLISH

Time : 1 hr.
Max. Marks : 25

SECTION – A (READING) (5 marks)

Read the passage and answer the following questions.

At the edge of a forest stood a big tree. Its branches spread out majestically and so did its roots. It shielded people from the sun under its shady leaves, and provided shelter to small birds and countless other creatures in its branches. It buzzed with activity all the time.

At the foot of the tree grew a little plant. It was thin and delicate and tended to bend over at the touch of the slightest breeze.

One day the tree and the little plant were having a chat.

“Well, little one,” said the tree to the plant, “why do you not plant your feet deeply in the ground, and raise your head boldly in the air as I do?”

“I see no need to do so,” whispered the plant with a smile. “Actually, I think I may be safer this way.”
